On a fine spring day, Baby goes for a walk and wonders about what he sees and hears in a tree, in the dirt, and behind a bush.

Baby prepares for an autumn day and wonders about what is behind the shutters, underneath the rake, and in the apple tree.

Young children describe how they feel when they want milk and crackers, get tickled, yawn, and receive lots of kisses.

Readers can help Baby as she searches for Easter eggs and finds some other nice surprises along the way. On board pages.

Presents vocabulary of objects typically found during springtime with full-color photographs representing each object. On board pages.

Babies see different colors and identify objects representing those colors, including blue blueberries, yellow daffodils, green turtles, and orange carrots. On board pages.

In Where Is Baby's Puppy? little ones will love lifting large, sturdy flaps as they search for Baby's pet puppy. Young readers will encounter plenty of other pets--such as a kitten, a goldfish, a turtle, and more--along the way until Baby's puppy is revealed at the very end.

Young readers are invited to lift flaps to reveal animals riding in such vehicles as trains, planes, and trucks.

When a little ladybug awakens from its long sleep and discovers that it is spring, it goes about waking all the other sleeping animals.

Baby enjoys meeting fluffy chicks, a woolly lamb, and other baby farm animals, in a work in which parts of the illustrations have a textured surface.
