The role of the Chair | Institute of Directors | IoD

The chairperson is the presiding officer of an organized group such as a board, committee, or deliberative assembly. The person holding the office, who is typically elected or appointed by members of the group, presides over meetings of the group, and conducts the group's business in an orderly fashion. In some organizations, the chairperson is also known as president. In others, where a board appoints a president, the two terms are used for distinctly different positions.
